

Howdy Folks

Welcome to Riverwood Ranch. We are excited to hear that you are interested in riding with us at the ranch. We provide a variety of options for both the experienced and beginner riders. Some of the events we provide include guided trail rides, adventure cattle drives, obstacle play days and camping getaways. We also provide a horse training service as well as horseback riding lessons. Please take a read through our policy invitation letter, but do not hesitate to contact us if you have further questions or would like to make a unique experience possible! We look forward to having you at the ranch.

Trail Rides

Riverwood Ranch provides a variety of guided trail rides, tailored to your individual riding ability and experience. All of our trail rides are guided by an experienced Riverwood Ranch wrangler for your safety and convenience. All levels of experience are welcome to join! Private or group trail rides are available upon request. Please seek clarification when booking about the riding experience requirements of your scheduled trail ride. We kindly ask that each rider brings an appropriate set of riding boots, which include a sturdy heel with ankle support (Sandals, flip-flops and high heel shoes will not be allowed). Please seek clarification if you are unsure of what is acceptable. All participants must be over fourteen years of age in order to join a group trail ride. For participants between the ages of six-fourteen, a private event may be organized. All participants aged six-ten must be ponied by a designated Riverwood Ranch wrangler at all times and will only be able to join scheduled private events. No trail ride events are available for participants under the age of six.

Obstacle Play Days

At every play day there is an opportunity for riders to try a variety of challenges and obstacles that will test your overall horsemanship. We believe that the ultimate way to gain a partnership with your horse is to try new experiences. Riders and horses of all ages and skill levels are welcome to attend! No previous experience is required. The day has a relaxing tone where all riders can come try the obstacles at their own pace! With our knowledgeable and patient staff on hand, we can assist riders attempting new goals and challenges! Wranglers are always available to help guests reach their own goals.

Pricing and Registration

No pre-registration is necessary for an obstacle play day. Riders will pay $25 per HORSE before entering the course. The course has an open-door policy (Come and go as you please between 10am-5pm). Multiple riders may ride one horse. Multiple horses are also encouraged.

Campground is available throughout the day FREE of charge.

Private Obstacle days can be arranged for groups of 10 participants or more with a 50% deposit.

Camping and Cabins

Riverwood Ranch has a campsite facility available for use for $25 per trailer rig site. Guests are NOT charged per horse or person. Dogs are welcome on leash. No hookups, but outhouses are available with FREE firewood. Water tanks are available for Horse use.

Riverwood Ranch has one single room cabin for rent for $75 per night. Double bed and covered deck. Campsite stall included.

Horse Back Riding Lessons

We provide horseback riding lessons for all levels of experience, focusing on naturalistic horsemanship practices in the western discipline. Private or group lessons can be arranged on a flexible schedule. Summer rates are $45/hr per person with use of Riverwood Ranch horse rentals. Lessons can also be arranged if participants are wanting to use their own horse. Instructors are also willing to travel. Please contact the ranch for future information on indoor winter lessons as well as lessons within the English discipline.

Horse Training

Riverwood ranch provides a unique horse starting and training program for all types of horses. We focus on creating solid foundations and partnerships in both horses and their owners. We individually tailor all of our programs to best suit the goals and needs of each one of our clients and horses. We make sure horses are exposed to all areas of ranch work as a catalyst to deal with any specific client/horse needs. Please contact the ranch for specific availability, prices and to discuss your horse training goals.

Cancellation Policy

If you decide to cancel a scheduled ride with at least 72 hour's notice of the ride date, your deposit will be transferred to another ride of your choice within the 2019 season. Deposits will not be transferred for cancellations without 72 hours notice of the ride date unless granted justifiable by Riverwood Ranch Staff. We also remind customers that all dates are weather dependent due to safety concerns. The decision to post-poner or cancel a scheduled ride lies solely with the staff of Riverwood Ranch. Updates about the ride status will be confirmed closer to an individual's ride date.

Other Things You Should Know

- All riders under the age of eighteen will be required to wear a helmet while riding
- If you are bringing your own horse to Riverwood Ranch, you will be responsible to ensure that your horse's vaccinations and deworming are up to date. Riverwood Ranch has the right to request proof of vaccination/deworming. It is your responsibility to ensure that your horse has a solid bill of health before coming to the Ranch. If your horse is deemed unsafe (in any way) Riverwood Ranch reserves the right to excuse you and your horse from a scheduled ride without refund.

- Please dress appropriately for the weather and bring rain gear NO MATTER WHAT THE CURRENT WEATHER CONDITION! The cowboy saying never lies "that it will rain if you don't bring a slicker"
